Dear Mr. Woolsey:

In going over my record files, after several changes in my clerical force, I find your letter of Feb. 17th, 1925, ordering one of my "Spanish Songs of Old California", and requesting that bill be sent for same. Your order is marked "Sent-Feb. 20, 1925"-- so I hope you received the Book. The bill, however, together with the envelope supposed to hold it, was filed instead of mailed. I am therefore forwarding it to you, enclosed, at this late date. Kindly let me know if the Book, too, failed to turn up in due time, in order that I may comply with your wish in the matter.

In case you should wish more copies, for your students, can quote you the following Quantity Rates to Teachers:

10 copies-----	20% off or	$1.20 each
11 to 25 "-----	30% " "	1.05 "
Over 25 "-----	1/3 " "	1.00 "

Purchaser to pay carriage on the 1/3 off lots; other lots prepaid.
